DISTRACTIONS

Revelation 2:10

Police Departments describe tactics often used by thieves. They come into a store in large numbers. Several members of the group begin making a scene and drawing attention to themselves. As they distract the attendant of the store, others from the group begin filling pockets with merchandise and cash as long as the distraction occurs. Many times hours, sometimes days or even weeks pass before the merchandise is missed.

Satan uses this same tactic in our lives. He offers political debate and anger or double-time for Sunday at work. He gives us more opportunities to busy ourselves with extra-curricular activities and hobby/entertainment oriented activities. These things fill our time with ourselves and distract us from God. He also gives us hardships. When we suffer we often take our eyes off of God and focus them keenly on our own difficulties.

Jesus shared this thought with us through John's pen in Revelation 2:10, "Do not fear what you are about to suffer, behold the devil is about to cast some of you into prison so that you will be tested and have tribulation for ten days. Be faithful until death and I will give you the crown of life." Keep your eyes on the goal which is the prize of the higher calling. Do not let the cares of this life, which come upon us all, take precedent over the glory which is to follow if we are faithful until death. God is faithful and just, He will keep his promise. Will you put off the distractions and keep your eyes fixed on him?
