THANK A VETERAN ON VETERANS DAY

Veterans Day is not listed among the favorite holidays of most people. They mostly list Christmas or Thanksgiving as the holidays they like most. But Veterans Day is an exceptionally important day in our society. It is important because it is the day in which we recognize those who made sacrifices for our safety and freedom. We say "Thank you" to our veterans for being separated from their families, living in deplorable conditions, and risking their lives so that we could write articles like this and worship without fear of persecution.

I wanted to share with you a few similarities that I find interesting. Soldiers shed their blood for the benefit of others, just like Jesus did on the cross. Soldiers leave their homes and go to distant places to secure the freedom of others, just like Jesus did when He left heaven and came to earth. The sacrifice of a soldier is not so unlike that of our Savior.

I am not trying to place soldiers in the category of our Savior and His sacrifice; nothing can ever exactly like what He did for us. But I believe we can rightly honor them for their devotion to freedom and willingness to risk their lives to protect us. We can see that they followed the example of Jesus at least in risking their own safety for our benefit. Whenever you see a veteran who faithfully served us tell them "Thank you".

"If I then, your Lord and Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet. For I have given you an example that you should do as I have done to you." John 13:14-15

The Bible's Advice on Thanksgiving

It is very interesting to note the various contexts in which the word "thanksgiving" occurs in the Bible (NKJV). Here are just a few of the places:

• In Lev. 7:11-15, it is connected with offerings and sacrifices to God.

• In Psa. 26, it is connected with the proclaiming of God and His "wondrous works."

• In Psa. 95, it is connected with a joyful attitude due to God's salvation.

• In Psa. 147, it is in connection with honoring God's goodness and constant blessings.

• In 2 Cor. 9:10-12, it is in connection with helping those who are in need.

• In Col. 4:2, it is in connection with continued prayers.

• In 1 Tim. 4:3-4, it is in connection with our meals.

So in examining these texts, we see that thanksgiving is not something separated from the everyday life of the child of God. It is to be an integral part of our daily lives. It is a way of living – true thanksgiving is "thanksliving"!

Christians have so much for which to be thankful, and daily we should live and give our thanks to God."As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving" (Col. 2:6-7).
