DON'T PLAY THE NAME GAME

Naming a child can be difficult. Some people want an original name but with the billions of people on earth, there are very few left. Some want to name their child after someone in the family but there are many people in both sides his and her families that need to be considered. Whose feelings get hurt? I have never heard anyone truly consider the name Jezebel. In fact, I have heard a woman called a Jezebel before and it was not a compliment.

How do you want others to use your name? There are some umpires in the past that have not been very good at their job. When someone makes a mistake on the softball field a fellow umpire will at times call him by one of those names. It would be humiliating to know that your name was being used in that manner.

Think then about the name above all names with me for a moment. God is the Father of all things and lover of humanity. Jesus is the Divine Savior of all of mankind; the sacrifice that took away our sins. Who deserves respect and honor greater than these two? Why then do some people use their names in a manner other than honorable and respectful? Often people will use the name of our God to express disappointment, pain, displeasure, surprise, fear, or some other emotion. This is vain use of the highest and greatest names ever known to man. Paul said that Jesus is the name at which every knee should bow in heaven and on earth and every tongue confess (Philippians 2:10-11). When you speak His name, the Father or Son, if your usage does not express the glory of the Father then it is vain usage.

“Holy and reverend is His name” Psalm 111:9

Remember In Prayer

Dave Butterfield will be fitted for a leg brace after the first of the year, this will hopefully relieve some of his pain.

Lloyd McDonald is visiting with his daughter in Louisiana, while there he was hospitalized with a virus but has been discharged and is feeling some better.

Jimmy Sailor has been having issues with his neck and is waiting to be scheduled for an MRI.

John Rader is recovering from his recent radiation treatments.

Sandy Rader is scheduled to have surgery for her cancer in January.

Mildred Price has been placed under Hospice care.

Debi Province, sister of Bob Cameron, will be leaving this week to stay in Florida for three months, she asks for our prayers for a safe trip.

Janet Tate, sister of Connie Cox, will have surgery on December 26th, following the surgery she will not have to have chemotherapy or radiation.

Announcements

Encouragement Team Youth will pick up their opportunity cards tonight.

Calling Tree: Please remember to return your contact information sheet into the office as soon as possible so we can begin using our new calling tree at the beginning of the year. The sheets are located on the tables in the foyer and auditorium. You can place them in the box outside of Eydie’s office.

Song Service: Next Sunday evening we will have a song service, all song leaders please have your selections to the men in the PA booth by next Sunday morning.

Clothing Closet: Please do not bring any clothing to our clothing closet until further notice, Candy needs some time to catch up.

Thank You

Thank you so much to the ladies who provided a wonderful thanksgiving meal to us. In Christian love always, Van and Ronnie Ferrier

To the carolers, Thank you young children for all of your sweet voices and for the prayer led by Zander Duncan. It was very special and uplifting to me. Also thanks to John Duncan and Kevin Grose for taking the time to bring the children to my home. Happy Holidays and God bless all of you. In Christian love, Mary Rose Talbott

The Bible Speaks

I am the Bible, God’s wonderful library.
I am always - and above all - the truth.
To the weary pilgrim, I am a strong staff.
To the one who sits in darkness, I am glorious light.
To those who stumble beneath heavy burdens, I am sweet rest.
To him who has lost his way, I am a safe guide.
To those who are sick in sin, I am healing, strength and forgiveness.
To those who are tossed about by the storm of life, I am a steadfast anchor.
To those who search for salvation, I reveal the Savior of the world.
I am the Bible, God’s wonderful gift to mankind.
