NICE GUYS

The saying goes, “Nice guys finish last.” But is that true? In accordance with the new norm and standards in the US it seems to be. The loudest mouth and biggest bully seems to get his way most of the time. But does that mean that he wins? Remember it takes more than one battle to win a war.

The nice guy, the one who wants to do the right thing, is often abused by people of the world. But he says, “That’s OK, I’m not here for myself anyway.” He will not retaliate against those who abuse him. The world sees this as weakness and has decided that this guy is the biggest loser because of what he allows others to do to him.

The biggest flaw in this reasoning is that the world, who is trying to determine who won and lost, has the wrong standard of judgment. The only success in life is one that ends in eternal glory in heaven. Anything that happens that inhibits our path to heaven is a loss. Treating others badly for your own selfish interests inhibits your path to heaven. So the one who bullies his way through the world to get what he wants with little to no regard for anyone else is actually the biggest loser because of the damages he has done to his chances of heaven.

Nice guys, those who live by God’s word and are governed by a genuine love for God and fellow man, are the winners in life.

“For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?” (Matthew 16:26)

To Our North End family, Words cannot express our gratitude for the love and support shown to our family during Mary’s illness and especially at her passing. The cards, phone calls and visits meant so much. The food provided for our large family was absolutely amazing! A special thank you to the ones who gave of their time to serve at the dinner and clean up afterwards. Also we want to thank you for your prayers and cards during Lawney’s illness and treatments. North End truly has some wonderful people. We love you all, Lawney and the entire Kupfner family
