A commission is an authoritative order, a charge given another to carry out a deed or action. Great means large in scale, not to a few but to many (or all). Great can also indicate the importance of such an action. The importance of this commission cannot be overstated. The great commission in Matthew 28 is of the highest of all actions to which we are called. The authority for this commission is of the highest order. It is by the authority of Jesus Who has “All authority”. His authority is from heaven and gives him rule over things on earth. As far as commissions go, this one is the greatest.

What is the commission we are given? We make disciples in all nations. Making a disciple is leading someone to Jesus Christ and developing their faith in Him. We do not make disciples of “our” church or of the plan of salvation. We make disciples of Jesus Christ. Part of the discipleship will necessarily include being baptized in the name of the Father, Son, and Holy Spirit for the remission of sins. But one who is converted to baptism apart from following Jesus is not a proper disciple. Do not win people to baptism but to Jesus. Being His disciple does not end at baptism. We must continue to learn all the things He has commanded us and practice those things, which is what a disciple does; he follows the commissions of His leader. And ours has all the authority in the world.

Jesus has the authority to make such a commission and has chosen to do so. His commission is that we use our faith to build faith in Christ in those around us. This charge is given to all Christians so go, make disciples, and be part of the Lord’s authorized army of peace and love.
