BACK TO SCHOOL!!

You can feel the energy this time of year. The shopping for supplies and new clothes is winding down. Schedules are set, books prepared for the students that will soon pick them up, and teachers waking up from a long summer's rest. It's almost time to go back to school. Eagerness and anxiety fill the heart of many students as they move up to a new school for the first time, kindergartners, sixth graders, and freshmen in high school or college. New classes and new friends are both exciting and frightening.

These new experiences often bring about new temptations. New friends have new interests and sometimes those interests are not in our best interest. They may want to do things that we should not do. When going to a new school or new class, remember who you are. You are a chosen vessel of Christ bought with His blood and representing His image. New friends are not a worthwhile tradeoff for everything He has done for you.

New classes mean new teachers. We often reject the authority someone new has over us. This is a mistake. Paul says in Romans 13 that the authorities in our lives are placed there for our protection and our own good. Far too often we feel someone has to earn our respect. That is simply not true. For those in authority, and anyone else for that matter, we ought to show respect. Even if we think we do not like that person. A teacher or principal is still in a position of authority. The only time that authority is invalidated is if they try to force us to violate God's word.

As you begin this new school year remember these two principles. You are a chosen vessel, the representative of God in your school. Do not let the bad influence of evil people destroy what God is doing in you. And remember, God has given authority to others for our own benefit. Respect the authority of those who are over you. Submit to them because they represent God as his ministers in your life. Appreciate what they are doing and learn as much as you can. You can make it a great year if you will keep these two principles in mind. Now go have a great school year and may God bless you.

Diane Fouss continues weekly chemotherapy treatments.

Ken James has been in the intensive care unit at Camden Clark Hospital this past week.

Joe Milligan is undergoing chemotherapy treatments every other week.

Sympathy: Our sympathy is extended to Harley Cox at the death of his brother, David Cox. His funeral was held on Friday in Bridgeport, West Virginia.

Kimbol Born, who has been attending with us for a few weeks, has asked we keep his friend, Pat Wiley, in our prayers after he suffered extensive injuries in a motorcycle accident.

In Exchange

This is the beginning of a new day. God has given me this day to use as I will. I can waste it or use it for good, but what I do today is important because I am exchanging a day of my life for it! When tomorrow comes, this day will be gone forever, leaving in its place something that I have traded for it. I want it to be gain, not loss; good, and not evil, success, and not failure; in order that I shall not regret the price that I have paid for it.

Announcements

Love & Care we are responsible for the services at Love & Care today at 2:30 pm and on Thursday, August 15th at 7:00 pm. Any men who can help with these services, please see Dan Lyons.

VBS: I would like to thank all of those who had a part in making this year's VBS a success. It takes many people working together behind the scenes to have an event like this. Thank you for all you do at North End. All your efforts allowed me to just monkey around! Kevin Grose

Group One will pick up their opportunity cards tonight.

New Member: Last Sunday Gary Mathers placed membership with us.

North End Homecoming: North End is planning a 75th anniversary and homecoming on Sunday, September 8th. John Miller, a former minister at North End, will be speaking for us during morning worship, Bible class and evening worship. We will have a covered dish dinner following Bible classes. Please make plans to attend and invite others to join us.

Flyers: There are flyers advertising our 75th Anniversary and Homecoming. Take some with you to mail or hand out to former members. It would be wonderful to have a great turn out. The flyers are located on the tables in the foyer and back of the auditorium.

Ladies Outing: Our ladies are invited to take a trip to Amish country on Saturday, August 31st. Meet at the building at 8:00 am. See Laura Hamm or Jennie Haguewood if you have any questions.

Bulletin: Eydie will be out of town until August 27th. Rita Cameron will be publishing the bulletin for the next two Sunday's.

Thank You: Dear North End Family, Thank you so much for the money tree and card. We were amazed at the amount collected for us. It was greatly appreciated. Thank you to everyone who came to our wedding reception. Thank you to the ladies who helped mom with the reception. It is always nice to come back home and visit with our family at North End. In Christian love,
Jeremy & Peri Fouss
