Finishing Well

Wouldn't you love to face eternity with confidence? You can!

"For I am already being poured out as a drink offering, and the time of my departure has come. I have fought the good fight, I have finished the race, I have kept the faith. Henceforth there is laid up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will award to me on that Day, and not only to me but also to all who have loved His appearing" (2 Tim. 4:6-8).

Paul knew a glorious welcome awaited him!

He knew he would hear, "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matt. 25:21).

He knew his name would be acknowledged before the Father (Matt. 10:32).

He knew that God's grace was bigger than his sin.

He knew the mercy and love of the Lord was more powerful than his rebellion.

He knew it was not about how he started (persecuting Jesus and the Church—Acts 9:4), it was about how he finished.

The Good News of Jesus Christ: We are all sinners (Rom. 3:23), but Jesus died and rose again offering us hope (1 Thess. 4:13-14; Eph. 2:12-13).

When it comes to running the race of life (1 Cor. 9:24), it is not about how we start, it is about how we finish.

Remember In Prayer

Sebastian Buckley who is the teenage grandson of Donna Davis' neighbor is diabetic and showing signs of kidney failure. They have requested prayers for him.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Greg Kupfner in the loss of his brother, Bill. He died on Tuesday and his funeral was on Friday. Please remember the Kupfner family in your prayers.

Sympathy: We also extend sympathy to Chris Ware at the death of his uncle Randy Ware. We need to remember the Ware family in our prayers also.

Brittany Elliot, the granddaughter of Ruth Dickson is going to be having major surgery and the family has asked us to remember Brittany in our prayers.

Mark Berry: As of Friday, Mark's pain has eased some but he is still in the hospital on antibiotics. He still isn't able to walk because of the swelling in his feet. Mark is in Room 912 at WVU Hospital in Morgantown.

Dave Butterfield is still in Belpre Landing and is scheduled to have an angiogram on August 29th. His stitches are out but he is still on IV antibiotics. They will schedule a graft after the results of the angiogram.

Diane Fouss continues her weekly chemotherapy treatments every Friday. We were glad to see that Diane felt well enough to visit with Jeremy last week.

Ken James: is out of Intensive Care and was able to attend services on Wednesday. It's good to have Ken back worshipping with us.

What to Pray For: Do not pray for an easy life; pray to be a stronger person. Do not pray for tasks equal to your powers; pray for powers equal to your tasks. Then the doing of your work shall be no miracle, but you will be the miracle.

75th Anniversary: The 75th anniversary and homecoming for the North end congregation will be Sunday, September 8th. John Miller will speak for us during morning worship, Bible class and evening worship. Invite others to join us. There are flyers on the tables in the back of the auditorium.

Thank You: Dear Church: These past 7 months have been very difficult for us, her mom and brothers, as well as her husband, Bill and kids, Jen and Ben. Having to watch her endure the pain and suffering, the highs and lows and not being able to do much to help her has been hard. But we want to thank you for all the prayers and cards, the support for Mike and Heather and for the flowers. Although it is, and will be for a long time, very hard to accept and let her go, a small part of us experiences a bit of relief that she is no longer suffering the pain and uncertainty. Thanks again,

Love, Nancy Oblisk and the family of Kim Stimmel
