VBS!!

VBS is here, one of the most exciting times of the year. We will have young folks from all around the area visiting with us and learning about the strengths of men of faith as they dealt with some of the struggles of being the only one to stand where they stood.

Tom Hanks starred in the movie Cast Away, a movie about a man marooned on a deserted island for years. There were many challenges he faced as the only one on the island, the biggest challenge was the feeling of being all alone. He even reverted to having conversations with a blood stained volleyball. Christians feel this same loneliness often. You may be the only one of your friends that does not curse, tell unbecoming jokes, smoke or drink alcohol. The world wonders why you don't just behave like them, but you know that it's because God disapproves. As you deal with these challenges you can look at the examples of the Bible and see how these faithful men of old handled the same challenge in their time. It was not always easy but faith was always the right answer.

Take the tour with us on our deserted island this week and see what wonderful stories the Bible has to share with us as we are marooned with the Gospel of Christ.

Remember In Prayer

Mark Berry is doing better and is able to eat without much discomfort. He is still weak but is improving daily.

Dave Butterfield continues his rehabilitation at Belpre Landing. He is in room 106 and would enjoy having visitors.

Wirt Cook is undergoing testing for his liver cancer. He sees his oncologist August 7th.

Cova Ferrebee has been in the hospital and is being treated with antibiotics. She was hoping to be home by the weekend.

Diane Fouss continues weekly chemotherapy treatments.

Joe Milligan is undergoing chemotherapy treatments.

Bill Kupfner, brother of Greg Kupfner, is in Camden Clark Hospital. He is dealing with many health issues and is not doing well.

Do It Well

Amateur, haphazard, slipshod, hit-and-miss, inattentive, incomplete, mediocre, shallow, skill-less, unskillful, wanting.

All these adjectives are ones we use to describe things that are done but not done well. It's an attitude that is far too common today. We settle for what is easy, normal, the status quo. But was this the example of Jesus?

In Mark 7:37, people in describing Jesus said of him, "He has done all things well…" In everything he did, Jesus held to a higher standard of excellence. He didn't just do it, he did it well.

Why shouldn't we do the same?
