WHY DO WE DO THAT?

Why do we worship God on the first day of the week? The Jews worshipped on Saturday, why don't we? Monday might be more convenient for some people or maybe different days because of rotating shift schedules. Why can we not move our worship service to another day to accommodate those who cannot be here Sunday because their work schedule does not allow?

First of all, we have made some concessions on Sunday. We have two services on Sunday, on in the morning and one in the evening. We offer the Lord's Supper a second time for those who were not able to be here in the morning. This gives as many people as possible the opportunity to worship Sunday.

But we cannot alter the day of worship beyond Sunday because that is not what God desires. Acts 20:7 clearly demonstrates that the first day of the week we the time of worship for the church of our Lord during the time of the apostles. Remember, the apostles are the ones chosen by Jesus to tell us what He wants us to do. And they met on the first day of the week, Sunday.

Why Sunday? Sunday is related to God's power. The Old Testament Sabbath worship was based on God's rest and commanded rest for the people. Two significant events occurred on the first day of the week, the creation of the world and the resurrection of the Christ. Sunday is about God's power and is the day we are told we must worship Him.

We worship God on the first day of the week, Sunday, because that is what God wants.

Poem Of Life

Life is but a stopping place,
A pause in what's to be,
A resting place along the road,
To sweet eternity.

We all have different journey's
Different paths along the way,
We all were meant to learn some things,
But never meant to stay...

Our destination is a place,
Far greater than we know,
For some the journey's quicker,
For some the journey's slow.

And when the journey finally ends,
We'll claim a great reward,
And find an everlasting peace,
Together with the Lord.
