GOD'S GRACE

Many times people accuse us in the church of undermining God's grace. Some of those people say there is nothing man can do to merit salvation, it is God's free gift and all one has to do is believe and he will be saved. Ephesians 2:8 says, "For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God." To this I would say, "Amen". Salvation is the free gift of God that I can never merit.

But it must be noticed that salvation comes only through faith. In other words, salvation is the free gift of God but comes through faith. James says that one cannot have faith unless it is accompanied by action (James 2:14-26). Faith without works is dead. Those works do not earn grace but they are a natural part of faith. This faith is the one spoken of by Paul in Ephesians when he says that the free gift of God is given "through faith". God gives us salvation as a result of our faith. We cannot have faith without action. Those actions must be in accord with the will of God. Therefore obedience is implied in this text in James as a necessary part of faith.

Let me put this together. In Ephesians 2 Paul is contrasting works of the law with the new covenant of God. Meritorious works will not buy points with God toward your salvation. But faith in Him requires obedience (John 14:15, "If you love me you will keep my commandments"). Therefore we must obey God's commandments if we hope to obtain the grace that saves. That includes hearing God's word and acting on it in full compliance, including baptism (Acts 2:38). Obedience does not circumvent God's grace; it puts us in touch with it.

Remember In Prayer

Joe Milligan began chemotherapy treatments this past Monday, he will have a treatment every Monday for three months.

Cinda Rinard consulted with doctors in Cleveland and was told she does not have MS but she will continue the treatments she is taking to help with headaches and will follow up with her neurologist.

Landon Schultheis, friend of Dillon Hinton, is in Nationwide Children's Hospital recovering from heart surgery.

Kim Stimmel, sister of Mike Oblisk, was recently in the hospital and had a bone marrow biopsy, she is waiting to hear the results.

Janet Tate, sister of Connie Cox, will begin radiation treatments the week of January 27th.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Ruth Dickson at the death of her sister, Karla Houser, who passed away January 13th.

You Have 24 Hours

Odds are that the vast majority of you who are reading this have more than 24 hours to live. But what are you going to do with the 24 hours that you have? Are you going to...

- give a word of encouragement?
- mend broken bridges?
- help someone in need?
- turn off the TV to read God's word?
- put down the phone to read God's word?
- serve the church the way you're called to?
- live like you had 24 hours to live?

You're going to do something over the next 24 hours. It's up to you (Ephesians 5:15-16).
