OPPORTUNITY IN 2019

Well here is another year. 2018 actually went quietly into the night after the tumultuous time spent. 2019 has now started and we are off and running. As of the writing of this article there has been no real noteworthy news to report related to 2019, other than WVU is looking for a new football coach.

As for the church that meets here at North End. Last year was a good year; for all that happened we are grateful to God. He has been good to each of us. But now we mark a new beginning. Next year, Lord willing, we will be looking back at 2019 in the same manner as we are now looking back at 2018. What will we see? We will see opportunity; each day will be full of opportunity. Opportunities will be there to do something for someone who has less than us. Opportunities will be there to teach someone about the Bible and lead them to Christ. Opportunities will be there to be an example to someone who needs to see a Christian. Opportunities will be there to be a friend to the down-trodden or visit the sick. The opportunity to serve Christ will be present in each and every day. If each of us takes advantage of those opportunities to serve Jesus Christ we will be able to look back on 2019 and say this has been a good year and we can hope to see even better in 2020. Keep your eyes open for those opportunities to make 2019 a great year for our Lord.

Remember In Prayer

Bob Cameron was in the hospital last week and underwent a procedure on his esophagus.

Wirt Cook is scheduled to get a pacemaker this Thursday, January 10th in Marietta.

Joe Milligan has been diagnosed with a mass on his pancreas. He will be undergoing chemotherapy followed by surgery.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Lisa West at the death of her mother, Joyce Everson, who passed away December 30th.

Janet Tate, sister of Connie Cox, is doing well and was able to return home last week. She is waiting on test results.

The Church Exists To:

- Exalt God (Eph. 3:21).
- Evangelize the world (Acts 14:25-28).
- Endorse the truth (1 Tim. 3:15).
- Edify the believers (Eph. 4:16).
- Educate the uninformed (2 Tim. 2:2).
- Equip the saints (Eph. 4:12).
- Ease the burdens of the needy (2 Cor. 9:13).

Are you doing your part to help this church be what it's supposed to be?
