I AM FORGIVEN

Matthew 18:21-35

I have heard others say that the only difference between a Christian and a non-Christian is that Christians are forgiven. I wonder how often those who make such statements realize the magnitude of those words. If we truly believe that, and I do, this statement means that I owe something to others.

The text for this article is the one where man owed his king 10,000 talents and was unable to pay. He was forgiven because of the mercy of the king. He promptly went out and had a debtor of 100 denarii thrown into prison. The king found out and had the man thrown to the torturers.

The idea is simple. As sinners who have been forgiven, our debt to God is great, insurmountable. If we hope to continue in the forgiving grace of the king, we must be forgiving to others. Some may sin against us, but we owe God far more than what is owed to us by others. This is why Jesus taught in the model prayer that we ask for forgiveness from God in as much as we forgive those around us (Matthew 6:12).

Be willing to mean that you forgive others, even though sometimes they do not ask when you think they should have.

Remember In Prayer

Mark Berry was admitted to the hospital last week and was diagnosed with Pericarditis, an inflammation in the lining of the heart. It can be treated with medication.

Ken James came forward last Wednesday requesting our prayers for more patience and trust in the Lord.

Jackie Kincaid: At the time of this printing Jackie Kincaid was in the emergency room at Camden Clark Hospital. She has not been feeling well for a couple of weeks and was suffering with an upper respiratory infection.

John Rader is scheduled to have a PET scan this Thursday, March 28th in Pittsburgh.

Prayer List: We have many friends and family on our prayer list in the left hand column of our bulletin. If you want their name to remain on the list, please write it on the back of your attendance card.

~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~~

He Is

When you are the neediest,
He is the most sufficient.
When you are completely helpless,
He is the most helpful.
When you feel totally dependent,
He is absolutely dependable.
When you are the weakest,
He is the most able.
When you are the most alone,
He is intimately present.
When you feel you are the least,
He is the greatest.
When you feel the most useless,
He is preparing you.
When it is the darkest,
He is the only Light you need.
When you feel the least secure,
He is your Rock and Fortress,
When you are the most humble,
He is most gracious.

"Now unto Him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us, unto Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end…" (Ephesians 3:20-21).

Announcements

Group Four (Youth) will pick up their opportunity cards tonight.

CD's: If you ordered CD recordings from our Youth Rally they can be picked up from the table in the back of the auditorium.

Bulletin: The bulletin will be printed on Thursday this week. If you have any items for the bulletin, please give them to Eydie by Wednesday.

Song Service: Next Sunday evening, March 31st, we will have a song service. All song leaders need to give their song selections to the men in the PA booth by next Sunday morning.

Thank You: Thank you for the prayers, cards, visits and flowers during my recent hospital stay. They all meant so much to me. In Christian love, Kim Barclay

Gospel Meeting: Our Gospel Meeting will be April 28th - May 1st with Phil Sanders. Phil is the speaker for "In Search of the Lord's Way" that can be seen every Sunday morning at 7:30 am on WTAP. Make plans to be here for every service.

Why I Go To Worship

1. I want to go, and I am wanted.
2. I need to go, and I am needed.
3. I had rather be there than anywhere else.
4. People will follow my example.
5. My soul is strengthened by the teaching.
6. My heart is warmed by the spiritual songs.
7. I am prepared to teach others.
8. I hunger and thirst after righteousness.
