YOU CAN'T JUDGE ME

Matthew 7:1-2

How often have you heard someone doing something they shouldn't and say, "You can't judge me"? Most often this phrase is an attempt to get you to leave them alone because they know they are doing something they should not do. I even heard a preacher speaking at a funeral say, "My Bible says not to judge…" Is Matthew 7:1 really a prohibition from making any sort of moral judgment in regards to the behavior of someone else? I do not think so and I plan to make the case against that understanding.

First consider that "Judge not…" is followed by "…with the measure you mete it will be measured to you." This is an indication that there is a warning here but could be more like using caution when you make such decisions because overly judgmental people tighten up the restrictions on themselves. Also notice that Jesus speaks of the beam in your eye and the speck in someone else's eye. He does not say you should not help your friend with the speck, just that you should deal with your beam first. To even know he has a beam requires some moral judgment. To help understand this point better, Jesus tells us to judge with righteous judgment in John 7:24.

On the other side, this is not free-reign to throw your opinions about others whenever or however you see fit. Speech with grace, seasoned with salt is intended to lead others to Christ. Our lives should be defined by love and forgiveness. Remember that your willingness to forgive will have a direct impact on the forgiveness you receive from God.

In the end, your judgment will not determine the eternal fate of someone else. But it might lead you to a place in their life that you can help them receive favorable judgment from God. God has given us the ability to reason, eyes to see, and minds to think about the lives of others around us. These are gifts of God and should be used in His service. If my judgment works against God's purpose, seek and save the lost, then I need to restrain it. If, on the other hand, my judgment helps me better serve God and my fellow humans, then I must use those tools given to me by God to the best of my abilities. Be careful with your judgment, be absolutely certain what you say, think, and do in regards to others is according to His purpose.

Slipping Into Heaven

Have you ever talked with someone who seemed to believe he was saved by "grease" and not "grace?" In other words, if he ever makes it to Heaven, he pictures himself barely making it, just slipping in before the gates are closed behind him on his coat tail. Such a view misrepresents how God saves men. No one will ever "slip" into Heaven, and the reason is that we are saved by "grace" and not by "grease." Those who enter Heaven will be granted an "abundant entrance" (2 Peter 1:11), and won't just slip through the gates as they close.

Instead of thinking of our entrance into Heaven being like a test on which we must score a certain percentage, think of it as a pass/fail test. We've either been saved by the blood of Christ or not. We're either his or we aren't. We're either walking in the light or we're walking in darkness. We're either faithful or we're unfaithful.

So what about you? Are you saved (Ephesians 1:7)? Are you in Him (Ephesians 1:11)? Are you walking in the light (1 John 1:7)? If the answers to those questions are, "Yes," you won't barely "slip" into heaven, you'll be granted an abundant entrance and will get to hear the Lord say, "Well done" (Matthew 25:21)!
