JESUS IS THE RESURRECTION

Resurrection means to improve someone's status or to raise up (specifically from the dead). Jesus says that He is the resurrection and the life in John 11:25. How exactly does that work?

First of all, He is first born from the dead. He is the greatest of all who have been resurrected. His resurrection sealed the deal that death had no power over man and that God has the power to raise us up in His time. Therefore, through His death we have the opportunity to have a better eternity than we would without His resurrection. He improved our eternal status.

Also, He has inspired the Bible to guide us through this life. It is our moral guide to tell us how we ought to live. This Bible plays a big part in our eternal improvement because it sets our God's guidelines for salvation and the life we must live if we hope to attain a place among the saved. It also improves our moral status on earth. It helps us to stand out and stand above the fray in the moral battle that occurs among carnal minded people.

Jesus is the greatest and most powerful. He made promises to us that He is capable of fulfilling. Evidence of that is in an empty tomb near Jerusalem where they once placed Him and where His friends and family found a tomb in want of a body. His resurrection sealed the fate of all men. We will either be left to our own devices because we refuse to follow Him. Or we will be invited into heaven because we decided to follow Him. The resurrection is the most powerful event in the history of mankind. I pray you let that resurrection and His word improve your status so that the resurrection will improve your eternity.

Remember In Prayer

Mark Berry is in WVU Hospital in Morgantown receiving his second round of chemotherapy. He will undergo a bone marrow transplant after his treatments are over. Mark's room number is 923.

Diane Fouss had a PET scan on Thursday. Following the results of that scan, a surgery date will be set.

Joe Milligan did not do well with his last chemotherapy treatment. His white blood count dropped considerably and he had to have supplemental injections for a few days.

Maj Morlan is still having pain. She was to have a CT scan to see if an infection had developed.

Prayer Requests: During our Gospel Meeting we had three respond to the invitation. Jen Miller needs our prayers to help with the struggles in her life, especially since her mother's death. Dave Cooper asked for prayers as he deals with anxiety and trying to live a Christian life. Emily Rittenhouse requested prayers to help her live right and to make better decisions.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Juanita Tanner at the death of her mother, Mary Nolan. Arrangements are at McClure -Schafer Funeral Home in Marietta for Monday, May 6th. The viewing is 10:00 am, and funeral at 11:00 am.

Ethany Coffman, the young girl who attends with Dennis and Pat Miller, has been referred to WVU Hospital in Morgantown for testing concerning her seizures.
