WHAT'S SO GREAT ABOUT IT?

What are things you consider to be great? (Grandkids, good food, grandkids, your wife and children, did I mention grandkids?) Hebrews 2:3 speaks of how great our salvation is. Our salvation is great for a few reasons:

First, it was given to us by God. Not bought from God but given, as in a gift. The God of the universe gave to us this wonderful gift of salvation. It was not free; we understand that from John 3:16. But He paid that price and delivered it to us.

Second, it comes from His love for us. The God of the universe loves us. In the vastness of space and the length of time, with all that is, was, and ever will be, God loves me enough to give to me this costly and precious gift. He offered the shed blood of His beloved Son to grant to me salvation because of His great love for me.

Finally, this salvation offers to us great blessings. Not just the salvation itself which is a tremendous blessing. But further, the hope of that salvation gives me peace and comfort. This world cannot change my eternal destiny, that's in God's hands and the world cannot touch His hands. It gives me joy, to know I am loved as God loves me, to know that regardless of my statue here on this planet, God has more for me. I have a joy from above that is beyond measure.

There are some pretty good things God has given us to enjoy here on the earth. But nothing compares to His love for us given through Christ Jesus. That salvation they secured to us through great sacrifice is the best thing man can ever know. Do you know what's so great about it?

Remember In Prayer

Sympathy: Our sympathy is extended to the family of Lloyd McDonald. Lloyd passed away unexpectedly on November 8th. His memorial service was held at the North End building on November 16th.

In Memory

Lloyd McDonald
March 6, 1951 - November 8, 2019

Rebecca Scott, sister of Fran Egnor, has been diagnosed with throat cancer. Her family requests our prayers.

John Rader is waiting on an appointment with an oncologist in Marietta. He is still undergoing testing for lung cancer. John's phone number has changed, it is: 304-483-2810.

Thankful, Even In Chains

Many hearts turn toward the concept of thankfulness during this time of year, and rightly so! God has provided an abundance not only of the physical things we need (Acts 14:17; 17:25; Matt. 5:45; 6:25-33), but also all spiritual blessings (Eph. 1:3; 2 Peter 1:3), which we need more. He is indeed a giver of good gifts (James 1:17)!

Sometimes, though, when one or more of these blessings seem to be missing in us for a time, we become discouraged or depressed. When that feeling comes upon you, remember the encouraging letter of rejoicing Paul wrote to the Philippians. Though in chains (Phil. 1:7,13), Paul was yet thankful for his fellow Christians (1:3-11) and for the continued preaching of the gospel despite his incarceration (1:12-18). Even in chains, Paul could rejoice (Phil. 4:4)! Will you?
