Joshua saw the angel standing before him as he planned to go to Jericho. He asked, “Are you on our side or the side of our adversaries?” The angel answered, “No, I come as captain of the Lord of hosts.” (Joshua 5:13-14 paraphrased) He wanted to know if he needed fear the angel or not. The angel’s answer tells us a great deal. He was not on man’s side but God’s. If Joshua was on God’s side they were allies, if he was not on God’s side the angel would be his enemy. Moses asks this question of the Israelites in Exodus 32:26. He asked for a response from those who were on the Lord’s side. Israel had just worshipped the golden calf Aaron made for them while Moses was on Mt. Sinai receiving the 10 commandments from God. God was upset because His people deserted Him. Moses asked for commitment from Israel. “Who is on the Lord’s side?”

The question rings through the ages and falls on our ears today. Whose side are you on? Will you be with those who worship the golden calf? You may not worship the golden calf but you may worship some other time robbing entity. Recall if you can why you missed services; am, pm, or class, over the last year. See if you want to take those reasons before God as an explanation for missing an opportunity to worship Him. Look how you treat others. Does your treatment of others represent the love He showed to you? Do you want to have to answer for the way you treated someone else? Not just the good ones remember the times you treated someone else badly. Ask yourself now, “Whose side am I on?” Time is coming when you will want to know the answer to that question because you will be asked.

Mother' Day

Where did Mother's Day come from? While naysayers have tried to identify this holiday with past pagan rituals, the truth is Mother's Day began as a day to honor good Christian moms. Anna M. Jarvis (1864-1948) is credited with bringing in the celebration of Mother's day with the first observance at a church service held on May 10, 1908. The idea itself did not take long to be spread to churches all over.

Our mothers are worthy of honor! God has given us instruction on how we are to treat our parents. We find this command in Exodus 20:12: "Honor your father and your mother, so that you may live long in the land the LORD your God is giving you." The word "honor" means to show re-spect, to reverence, even to hold in awe. What this means to us is that, no matter what our age (since this is a timeless command), we are to hold our mothers in high esteem. The truth is, we honor God by honoring our mothers.

To all the mothers present today and all who have passed from this life, we say a word of appreciation. Thank you for bringing up your children with good values. Especially thank you for doing your best to bring them up in the Lord!

Announcements

Baptism: Rick Kidder was baptized on May 5th. Rick was 11 when he was first baptized and was concerned he did not do it for the right reasons and wanted to make his calling and election sure. Be sure to encourage Rick.

Services: There will only be services on Sunday's during the month of May. There will be two identical services with half the congregation coming in the morning and the other half in the evening. There will be no Bible classes and no Wednesday services.

We ask everyone to wear a mask and practice social distancing, please spread out in the auditorium and have no physical contact with each other.

Communion: Communion supplies are on a table in the foyer. Please take one and it will be used at the proper time. The schedule shows we have men to serve communion but they will not be needed during the month of May.

Contribution: Please place your contribution in the trays located on the table in the back of the auditorium.

Attendance Cards: We need everyone to fill out an attendance card and place it in the basket on the table in the back of the auditorium. Even if you don't normally fill out a card we ask that you do today.

Song Books: We will be using the paperless hymnal, but if you do use a song book we ask that you leave it lay in the pew instead of putting it back in the rack. The same goes for the Bibles.

High School Seniors: We will honor our high school seniors sometime soon. You can send a picture and bio, with your accomplishments and future plans, to Eydie at: churchofchristnorthend@gmail.com
