"Happy New Year" is an expression that we throw about. But do we really mean it? As you enter the new year, is your life filled with Joy?

As a Christian, you have many reasons to be joyful. May I mention a few?

All your sins have been forgiven. When you came up from the waters of baptism complete and total forgiveness was yours (Acts 2:38). If you have remained faithful all your sins are constantly washed clean by Jesus' blood (1 John 1:7; 1 John 2:2).

All your prayers are being answered (1 John 5:14-15). Sometimes the answer is no. Sometimes it is "I have a better idea." But in all cases, your prayers are being answered. And each answer is for your eventual best outcome (Romans 8:28).

As Christians, God will "draw near to us." Often, we hear people say: "I feel like God doesn't care." Or they say, "God doesn't like me." The fact is, those folks are probably not making the effort to come close to Him. In the Old Testament, we read: "You will seek Him and find Him when you search for Him with your whole heart" (Jeremiah 29:13). In the New Testament, we find similar passages attesting to this truth. For example, consider Hebrews 2:1: "We must pay the most careful attention, therefore, to what we have heard (the message of Christ), so that we do not drift away."

There are many other reasons to be joyful in Christ as we approach the New Year. But please remember: this is "Joy in Christ" because true joy doesn't exist outside of Christ.

Happy New Year!

Use The New Year To Get Closer To God

This world is not my home. I want to go to heaven. Use this New Year to get closer to God and closer to heaven. I want to go to heaven because it is a place of beauty and splendor. Our hope is, "Laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel" (Colossians 1:5). Heaven is a, "City which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God" (Hebrews 11:10). Imagine being in a place where, "The Lord God Almighty and the Lamb" are its temple (Revelation 21:22). Heaven is a place of beauty, joy, comfort and delight. Let's go to heaven together.
