WHAT MAKES A HEALTHY CHURCH?

I love the Lord’s church. It is the greatest entity known to man. But what makes the church great; how does a church stay healthy? Paul answers this question when talking to the struggling church at Thessalonica. They were not struggling because they were weak but because the resistance to the truth was so strong.

They had three qualities that made them strong, the same three that make individuals strong. Paul also talks about those in 1 Corinthians 13:13 when he said the three things that matter are faith, hope, and love. Those three qualities that make the individual strong are the same three that keep the church healthy.

As the church we must be full of works of faith. Works such as the youth rally that was just successfully completed by a great deal of work by faithful people in the Lord’s body are the type needed. A healthy church will be identified by the good things they do for the community and the world. A healthy church is marked by its labor of love. Just as in 1 Corinthians 13:13, the greatest is love. Love is the reason that anything we do has meaning. As the church of Christ we must love as He loved us. Hope is the key to keep us moving forward. No one does anything unless there is something to look forward to at the end of the effort. Our hope is in Jesus Christ and He is trustworthy. We remain steadfast in His word because we know He has something in store for us if we do.

When we hang on to faith and do good things in His name, do our work in His kingdom because of our love for Him and our neighbors, then we have hope in His future that our efforts will be rewarded. Let’s keep His church healthy

We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers, remembering without ceasing your work of faith, labor of love, and steadfastness of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ in the sight of our God and Father 1 Thessalonians 1:2-3
