Are You Giving Up On "Church"?

It seems almost like a fad these days that people are "leaving church". Undoubtedly it is a postmodern trend to distrust anything that is organized or institutional. The facts are, however, that when you "leave" the church you are leaving the "bride" of Christ which Jesus died for and purchased with His own blood (Eph. 5:25; Acts 20:38). But without giving further theological reasons for the church (you would have to remove more than half of the New Testament to argue against the necessity and relevance of the church) below are some practical thoughts to consider when you're ready to throw-in-the-towel and leave the church. So, "What is the Church"?

- A fellowship against loneliness.
- A hospital for healing souls.
- A school instructing those who would fear God.
- An encouragement to walkers in the Way of Christ.
- A practice field for patience and compassion.
- A classroom of truth.
- A laboratory of life.
- An internship for minister-members.
- A hospitable door
- A herald of Good News, joyful news, hopeful news, helpful news.
- A time-out corner.
- A resting place.
- A bath for washing guilt away.
- A reflecting pool.
- A kneeling bench.
- A cafeteria where God feeds us.
- A garden where God comes looking for us.
- A rescue mission where God finds us.

“Listen” To The Sky

Each and every shining star
Testifies from vast afar
All the planets do agree
The moon joins in with unity
The marching clouds e'er proclaim
As does the sun with heat and flame
The brilliant sky and all beyond
Shouts “it’s through God that we spawned”

“The heavens declare the glory of God, and the sky above proclaims his handiwork” (Psalm 19:1, ESV).
