For generations people have done many great and heroic deeds in the name of freedom. They have sacrificed time, reputation, fortunes, and even life and limb for freedom. Freedom is the costliest idea ever put into man's mind. According to Statistia.com more than 1.3 million Americans have died in battle securing and defending our freedoms. Our world understands and appreciates the value of freedom and the sacrifices it requires. We are thankful for the men and women who have fought for our freedoms. Whether a veteran who made it home or one who was lost in battle, the nation owes a debt to you for the freedoms we enjoy.

The greater freedom is the one we enjoy through Christ. Only one life was given for this freedom but it was the life of the greatest man to ever walk the planet. He was, as Caiphas eloquently and accidentally predicted, the one man who died so that His nation might not perish (John 11:50). Freedom of the highest order was secured by the sacrifice of the Son of God.

As we honor the freedoms secured by those who fought with guns and bombs and lost life and limb for our nation, let us never forget the freedom secured by the One who went face to face with Satan himself and defeated him. Let us remember the Son of Man who left heaven and lived in poverty. Let us ever pay homage to the Lord of lords for the blood He shed that removes from us the stench of sin and guilt of our trespass. For freedom He died and for freedom He rose from the dead.

Home Without A Bible

What is home without a Bible?
 It's a home where day is night.
 Starless night, for over life's pathway
 Heaven can shed no kindly light.

What is home without a Bible?
 It's a home where daily bread
 For the body is provided,
 But the soul is never fed.

What is home without a Bible?
 It's a family out at sea,
 Compass lost and rudder broken,
 Drifting, drifting, thoughtlessly.
