Mirror, Mirror On The Wall

The story is told of a missionary who once visited a very primitive tribe of people. These people had very little contact with the outside world, and they were totally unfamiliar with many things we take for granted. One of the things they had never before seen was a mirror. The only way they knew what they looked like was the very poor reflection one can sometimes see in the water. One day, the missionary hung a mirror on a tree. The tribe's chief happened to walk past the mirror, so he stopped, stood there, and looked at it for quite some time. Then he walked directly to the missionary and asked him to explain. The missionary explained what a mirror was and that it was a reflection of what he looked like. The chief promptly walked back to the mirror, took it off the tree, and smashed it on the ground. The missionary asked him why he broke the mirror to which the chief replied, "Because the face that was being reflected was ugly."

When I heard that story, I couldn't help but think that in spite of all our sophistication, we still behave quite primitively at times. God's word functions as a mirror to our soul. We can look at it and learn exactly what we look like to God and others. Sometimes, the reflection is not very flattering. So we're left with a choice. Do we try to destroy the mirror? Do we refuse to look in the mirror again? Or do we do what we can to improve the way we look? I know what the tribal chief did, but what do you do? Give it some thought.

"For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer; he is like a man observing his natural face in a mirror; for he observes himself, goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was. But he who looks into the perfect law of liberty and continues in it, and is not a forgetful hearer but a doer of the work, this one will be blessed in what he does" (James 1:23-25).

Remember In Prayer

Jim Kerns had surgery on his knee and is now recuperating at home. He said he is feeling fine and is thankful the surgery is over and was a success.

Jimmy Sailor got news from his last test that he is now considered Cancer Free. That's wonderful news and we are thankful to God for Jimmy's recovery.

Pam Sailor had back surgery and spent some time at the Willows for rehab but is now home and feeling as well as can be expected. There is a sign-up list in the foyer for those who wish to participate in taking meals to Pam and Jimmy. If you don't want to cook, you can give a gift card or money for a gift card to Nancy Merrill or Rita Cameron and they will see that a meal is delivered from you. If you do fix something from home, please put it in containers that can be thrown away.

Pam Kupfner had surgery on her throat and is at home and not supposed to talk. She starts speech therapy next week and hopefully that will help her. Unfortunately, the surgery hasn't taken care of the cough she suffered with. We pray that in time that condition can also be resolved. She also had to take Buster to the ER because his face swelled significantly. No cause was discovered but he was given steroids and antibiotics and sent home.

Please remember all these in your prayers.
