WHO'S YOUR DADDY?

Sometimes people will ask this question after defeating someone in competition. Maybe they have a good shot over your defense in basketball or hit a home run off your pitching in baseball or softball. It is usually intended to demonstrate dominance over someone else. Typically it means you can assert your will over your opponent.

So let's consider this question with the basic criteria accepted from above. Who is your daddy? (Apart from your earthly father, of course)

He demonstrates dominance over you:

Genesis 1-2, God created everything

Psalm 50:7-15, God owns everything

Isaiah 55:8-9, God is smarter and wiser than us

He can impose His will over you:

Exodus 7-11, the plagues that made Egypt relent

John 4, the love that made an adulteress repent

Acts 9, the power that made Saul listen

So I ask you, with all these passages in mind, the power and persuasiveness of the almighty God. Who is your daddy? Who is exerting influence over your life?

Steven Haguewood

The Good Ole' Days?

Let's talk about the good 'ole days. I'm sure you've heard about them. Perhaps from a sentence starting with "back in my day..." And that's followed by all kinds of things. Back in my day kids respected their parents. Back in my day you didn't have to spend your whole paycheck on gasoline. Back in my day if you broke your leg you walked it off. You guys are soft.

I know it's very tempting to see past times as better, and to dwell on them. But before you do I want to tell you the Bible says that isn't wise. Ecclesiastes 7:10 says, "Do not say, 'Why were the old days better than these?' For it is not wise to ask such questions." Remembering the lessons of the past is good, but let's not live there. God has something in store for us today. As the Word says: "I tell you, now is the time of God's favor, now is the day of salvation." When you're with God today is a good day.
