A MEMORIAL

History is an important thing for humans. Churchill made famous the quote, "Those who fail to learn from the past are destined to repeat it." God knew the importance of remembering history when He told Joshua to have 12 stoned removed from the Jordan and placed in the camp of Israel as a memorial of what He did for them. They were to use these to teach their children of the history between God and Israel. He instituted the Lord's Supper to be partaken on the first day of every week as a reminder to Christians of the sacrifice Jesus made and the importance of the cross to us. Remembering history is important for us going forward.

This weekend our nation stops to remember those who made sacrifices. Men and women throughout our time as a country have been willing to put themselves in harm's way to stand between us and our enemies. Most made it home to their families. Many did not. They have been given the last Monday in the month of May to honor their sacrifice. We stop as a nation and pay homage to them and the freedoms their sacrifices preserved.

I encourage you to take the time Monday and remember those who served the country and surrendered their lives for your freedom. And I, even more, urge you to take the first day of each week and remember the sacrifice Jesus made for your eternity. Whether we will repeat history by failing to remember it or not is yet to be seen. But it is certain to cost us dearly if we fail to honor it.
