What The Church Offers

Too many folks look upon church attendance as being secondary to anything else on their schedule. They are not opposed to religion. They may even look upon it as a vital part of life. But they have no conscience against neglecting it. Perhaps the attitude is: "I'll go to church if nothing comes up, or if I am not too tired." But to stay away because we have so many other engagements or because we have so little strength left is like staying away from the dinner table because we are too weak from hunger to go to the table.

The Bible tells us that this was not uncommon in the first century. The writer of Hebrews notes "Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as is the manner of some" (Heb. 10:25).

What then does the church have to offer that a person cannot get anywhere else? One man said, "I do not go to church anymore because I can get what the church has to offer in better from elsewhere."

When the church gets into the business of offering the world what the world already has, it is in the wrong business, and is not the church of the New Testament.

The mission of God's church is to save souls. God's power for saving souls is in the gospel of Christ. It is the mission of the church to preach the gospel.

The church offers a family atmosphere to believers not found elsewhere. The early church was said to be "together and had all things common." (Acts 2:42).

Each member of the church is important. The church offers assistance to the believer in need (1 John 3:17).

The church is where the saved are (Acts 2:47). Their names are enrolled in heaven (Heb. 12:23). Where else can men have fellowship, communion with God and associations that they have in the church? In what other institution can we find the same assurance? Where else is offered the hope of everlasting life?

Remember In Prayer

Dick Cook has been moved to The Wyngate Senior Living Community. It is requested he have no visitors for a while. When he can have visitors it is best to ask Eva Cook or Diane Fouss for a good time to see him. His address is: The Wyngate Senior Living Community One Wyngate Drive Room 131 Parkersburg, WV 26105

Van Ferrier will have surgery on her kidney August 22nd. She should be able to go home the same day.

Chris Hanlon is scheduled to have knee surgery on August 23rd.

Ethel Mathers had an appointment August 18th in Columbus concerning her cancer.

Randi Michael had knee replacement surgery on Friday, August 19th.

Jimmy Sailor has an appointment on August 25th with a surgeon to discuss having back surgery.

Richard Biehl, grandfather of Jarrett Almond, was admitted to the ICU in Marietta. He was not doing well and the family was having to make difficult decisions concerning his care.

Bible Study is Hard Work

Most of us want our Bibles to give us simple black-and-white bumper sticker quotes, often because we don't want to do the hard work of living with the Bible and letting God shape us in an ongoing engagement with these powerful words. Study the Bible! "Be diligent to present yourself approved to God, a worker who does not need to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Timothy 2:15).

Mission Bibles and Flood Relief

The congregation has the opportunity to provide Bibles to Cuba through the Herald of Truth Ministries. We are going to purchase some through the church's mission monies. The Bibles cost $5.00 each. We will be sending our contribution the week of August 28th.

The elders have been made aware of a need in the flooded area of Kentucky. We will be sending money from the congregation to a church in Tipp City, Ohio for the Neon Kentucky Medical clinic to help with needed medical supplies in the flooded area. We will be sending money by the end of August.

The elders feel there may be some who would like to give, above their regular contribution, to one or both of these mission and benevolence works. If anyone wants to purchase Bibles and or help with the Kentucky flood relief. Please earmark your checks on the memo line ("Bibles for Cuba" or "Kentucky flood relief"). These monies will be added to the congregations contribution.
