There is just something about hearing your name. On some occasions, it is scary. If your mom or dad ever calls you by your whole name—first, middle, and last—you are likely in pretty big trouble.

On other occasions, it is a special honor. Graduation ceremonies are a great example of this. Why in the world do parents, grandparents, and other family and friends sit through hours of a ceremony hearing a person they don't know reading countless names of more people they don't know? It is because when that one name is called—the one name that is special to them—it is worth all the time and energy. For the graduating student it is so special to be recognized—to have that "I did it!" moment. When so much hard work has been put in, it is nice to be acknowledged.

It is special to hear your name called at times like this. It really is. But there is something more! There is something better! What about hearing your name called by the Lord Himself? He knows the stars by name (Isa. 40:26). He knows our names, too (John 10:3; Isa. 43:1,7;45:4).

Jesus once reminded His disciples that the greatest of rejoicing should be reserved for hearing one's name called into the presence of the Lord. "Do not rejoice that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in Heaven" (Luke 10:20).

On another occasion, Jesus said we should long to hear these words: "Well done, good and faithful servant" (Matt. 25:21).

The Lord knows us and one day He will call our name. What will He say when He does?

Thank You

We would like to say thanks for the support and love that so many of you have shown us during the loss of my sister, Vicki Shockey. The cards, your kind words, lunches, donations in her honor, your prayers, and being with us at her memorial service helped us through this difficult time. We appreciate each of you. In Christian love, Mark & Carolyn Shockey

Dear elders and mission committee of the North End church of Christ, Greetings from the leadership of the Metropolitan church of Christ in Panama. As you receive this brief thank you note, we hope our Heavenly Father is continuously shining His light upon you, your family, and the ministry you are overseeing. May God continue to guide you and give you daily wisdom to lead His flock. The Metropolitan church leaders and members extend their sincere gratitude to you for your generous donation toward this new phase of our construction project. We rejoice because once again God is answering our prayers and touching many hearts to collaborate with us in this effort. Most of all, we are happy to share that families and individuals are listening to the gospel daily because of our evangelistic team has not stopped sharing the gospel and our benevolence ministry has not stopped serving the needy in Panama. We love you and appreciate your spiritual and financial support. In Christ, Raul Alvarado, Elío Vergara, Carlos Lopez

The Time To Trust

When nothing whereon to lean remains,
When strongholds crumble to dust;
When nothing is sure but that God still reigns,
That is just the time to trust.
It's better to walk by faith than sight,
In this path of yours and mine;
And the pitch-black night,
When there's no outer light
Is the time for faith to shine.
