How do you respond when you are blessed? Do you respond gratefully when someone says something nice to you, or does something for you?

Picture a wife who spends two hours making a delicious meal for her husband because she wants to give him something special. The husband eats it without comment and then heads straight to the T.V. Or picture God answering prayers, as he did in the Bible when someone asked him for a longer life, but then 2 Chronicles 32:25 says that after this man's answered prayer his "heart was proud and he did not respond to the kindness shown him."

Why do we do that? Why do we ignore blessings? Maybe we think we are due these blessings. My wife should make me a two hour dinner every night, my parents should give me expensive gifts for my birthday. God should keep me healthy and safe. I deserve it and that's their job.

Well aren't you fun? No one is going to enjoy giving you anything if that's your attitude. I suggest a different approach when you're blessed: appreciate it. Be thankful. Otherwise your blessing can become a curse.

Remember In Prayer

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Jimmy Sailor at the death of his mother, Mary Shepherd. She passed away June 23rd and there will be a memorial service sometime this month.

What Have We Done Today

We shall do so much in the years to come,
But what have we done today?
We shall give our gold in a princely sum,
But what did we give today?
We shall lift the heart, and dry the tear,
We shall plant a hope in the place of fear,
We shall speak with words of love and cheer
But what did we speak today?

We shall be so kind in the after-while,
But what have we been today?
We shall bring to each lonely life a smile,
But what have we brought today?
We shall give to truth a grander birth,
And to steadfast faith a deeper worth,
We shall feed the hungering souls of earth,
But whom have we fed today?

We shall reap such joys in the by and by,
But what have we sown today?
We shall build us mansions in the sky,
But what have we built today?
It is sweet in idle dreams to bask,
But here and now do we do our task?
Yes, this is the thing our souls must ask—
O, what have we done today?
