There are days in all our lives that feel like a battle. How are we going to win? What do we trust to get us out of trouble? Do you believe your rainy day fun can make the sun shine again? Do you trust Siri or Google or Alexa will have the answer to your problem? Do you hold to the belief that dad and mom can make every boo-boo better? Well I'm sure your parents are very capable amateur medical practitioners, but I think ultimately our trust should be higher than our parents or the latest semi-smart phone.

Psalm 20:7 says, "Some trust in chariots and some in horses, but we trust in the name of the Lord our God." In the day of battle the only One who can rescue us every time is the Lord.

That doesn't mean trusting will always be easy. When you're in trouble you're in trouble until you're not in trouble, and being in trouble isn't fun. Before the rescue comes, we may anxiously wonder where it is. But I encourage you to believe the Word and know by faith that the rescue is coming for those who love God. I can't guarantee that if your trust is in anything else.

Remember In Prayer

Curtis and Ruth Dickson are both recovering from covid. Ruth said they are starting to feel better and hope to be out very soon.

John Kirkpatrick who is the brother of Paul Kirkpatrick has been diagnosed with a brain tumor. Please keep John and Paul and their families in your prayers.

Pat Pepler, Cindy Meredith's mother has been released from the hospital. She is at home and they are adjusting her medicine in hopes that will take care of her problems.

Mike and Marlene Fuchs lost everything in a house fire. He was the only one home and managed to escape with some smoke inhalation difficulties but is doing well now. Please remember this family in your prayers. Mike is the brother of Steve Fuchs.

Megan Daugherty, a friend of Doreen Kupfner, is facing brain surgery on July 19th. Megan has been in Cleveland Clinic for some time with a brain bleed and is in need of our prayers. Her husband is the Principal at the Wood County Christian School in Williamstown and they are members at the Grand Central church of Christ. Please remember Megan, Jason and their families in your prayers.

Don't study the Bible "hit and miss" because you'll miss more than you hit.

Announcements

Speaker: Charles Pugh will preach for us this today.

Panama Trip: Anyone interested in the November trip to Panama, please meet in the library today at 5:30 pm. A small team will be needed to staff the clinic that week. See Becky Kidder if you have any questions.

Bridal Shower: There will be a bridal shower for Camille Jones on Sunday, June 26th at 2:30 pm in our multi-purpose room. If you would like to give on a gift, please see Megan Duncan, Mandy Kupfner or Cindy Meredith. Camille and Adam are registered at Amazon.com.

Bible Class: There will be a new Sunday Bible class for young adults beginning June 26th. The class will be taught by Steve McIntire and will meet in classroom two.

Bible Bowl: the 36th annual Bible Bowl at Camden Avenue church of Christ will take place October 8th. The age divisions are: 1st-6th grades, 7th-12th grades and adults. If you are interested in participating, please sign the list on the table in the foyer. The questions will come from the books of Ezra and Nehemiah in the New King James version. If you would like to help the children prepare for the Bible Bowl, please sign the list.

VBS Helpers Needed: Our VBS will be July 31-August 3 with the picnic on August 4th. We will need several helpers in order to make the VBS a success. Kevin has placed sign-up sheets in the foyer. Please look those over and decide what you would like to help with.
