Will You Not Tell It Today?

By Jesse Eaton

As we live in a world that is corrupted to the core, and as we are surrounded by those who advocate for and vehemently propagate a sinful and "woke" agenda, it can be fearful to consider sharing the truth from God's word with others... in fact, sometimes it can be downright discouraging to try to share the truth and to be ignored, belittled, or even persecuted for upholding our faith!

The prophet Jeremiah was sent to speak to the children of Israel at a time in which the depravity of idolatry and wickedness. The people did not want to hear the truth from the Lord; in fact, they lifted up false prophets who lied to the people in the name of the Lord so that they could reject what Jeremiah prophesied in favor of 'their' prophets of the Lord. Understandably, Jeremiah got so frustrated in his ministry that he decided that he was done!

However, in the twentieth chapter of the book of Jeremiah, the prophet realizes:

"If I say, "I will not mention him, or speak ant more in his name," there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with holding it in, and I cannot."
 (Jer. 20:9)

We, like Jeremiah, must realize that God has given us a message to share with those around us, no matter how difficult or discouraging that may become. The Lord has done so much for each of us, and we cannot help but speak to others about the goodness of God and the unmerited mercy given to us through the sacrifice of Christ on our behalf. Will you tell someone today? Will you share the love of God with someone lost in sin today?

The Bible Speaks

I am the Bible, God's wonderful Library.

I am always—and above all—the truth.

To the weary pilgrim, I am a strong staff.

To the one who sits in darkness, I am glorious light.

To those who stumble beneath heavy burdens, I am sweet rest.

To him who has lost his way, I am a safe guide.

To those who are sick in sin, I am healing strength and forgiveness.

To those who are tossed about by the storm of life, I am a steadfast anchor.

To those who search for salvation, I reveal the Savior of the world.

I am the Bible, God's wonderful gift to mankind.
