When Was The Last Time?
 by Mark Aites

When was the last time you studied your Bible?

When was the last time you prayed to God?

When was the last time you invited someone to worship services?

When was the last time you studied the Bible with someone?

When was the last time you told someone of your faith in Christ?

When was the last time you helped someone in need?

When was the last time you encouraged someone who is struggling?

When was the last time you went to a Bible class on a regular basis?

Such questions help us see the neglect in our personal lives of doing what we know we should be doing. James reminds us, "Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin" (James 4:17).

It is also James who reminds us that Christianity is more than words. "But be doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving yourselves" (James 1:22).

When we are humble enough to admit neglect, it is important that we take steps to repent of our shortcomings. Was it not John the Baptist who said, "Bring forth therefore fruit worthy of repentance" (Matt. 3:8, ASV).

And how can we forget the stinging rebuke of our Savior? "But why do you call Me 'Lord, Lord,' and not do the things which I say?" (Luke 6:46-47).

Remember In Prayer

Mark Berry saw his eye specialist last Monday. His eye is slowly healing. He has another appointment next week.

Parma Heaney is now home after spending time in the hospital last week with chest pains. She underwent a stress test and will have an echocardiogram on April 17th at Selby Hospital.

Evelyn Dean had surgery on her kidney last week. She had two stents placed and is home recovering.

Van Ferrier had surgery on her wrist last week. She had three bones and some tendons removed. She will have no use of her hand for 6 weeks.

Jim Ullom had surgery this past Thursday. All went well and he is now recovering.

Lisa West is recovering from cataract surgery last week.

Drew McIntire, son of Steve and Eydie McIntire, had successful surgery this past Friday, March 10th, in Lexington, KY. He will remain in the hospital for several days.

Thank You

Thanks to my family at North End for the many prayers, cards, and phone calls and encouraging words during my knee surgery and recovery. It meant so much to me. It is so good to be back in worship. Love to all, Becky Petty

Thanks to the North end Church of Christ. I thank the congregation for all the beautiful cards, flowers, Christmas box, fruit basket, Birthday basket & balloons, visits of many, and a very nice ramp into my trailer. Thanks to all involved! And many phone calls. And fees for medical transportation. Thank you all from my heart! - Art Clegg
