Imperatives by Mark Aites

Isn't it ironic? So often we use the word must to signify that something is imperative (of vital importance), yet when it comes to the word of God, many fail to see it. It likely would shock many to know that the word must is used 186 times in Scripture.

For example, Jesus said, "Do not marvel that I said to you, 'You must be born again'" (John 3:7). Our Lord made it crystal clear that one cannot become a Christian without being born again or born anew.

Note the imperative even in the matter of worship. "God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth" (John 4:24). If worship is only in spirit and not in truth, it is not valid. If worship is only in truth but lacks the spirit, it is not valid. Jesus connected spirit and truth. To worship otherwise, is to disobey our Lord.

Here is another imperative. "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved" (Acts 4:12). Jesus is the only way that man can get to Heaven. The Lord told Thomas, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me" (John 14:6).

When Saul of Tarsus was on the road to Damascus, the Bible says He asked Jesus, "Lord, what do You want me to do? Then the Lord said to him, 'Arise and go into the city, and you will be told what you must do'" (Acts 9:6). The Philippian jailer asked the question, "What must I do to be saved?" (Acts 16:30-34). So often all one hears is that they are to simply believe, but if you read on in the latter text, you will learn that the jailer was taught God's Word (Acts 16:32), he was baptized (Acts 16:33), and then declared a believer (Acts 16:34).

The word must should not be taken lightly. Imperatives are not designed to be ignored. They are there for a reason!

Remember In Prayer

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to the family of Don Ogden. Don passed away February 5th. His funeral was held in Parkersburg on February 8th. Don was the father of Tracy Eaton and Rick Ogden and the brother of Lee Ann Shears.

Dave Butterfield will have cataract surgery on Wednesday, February 4th.

Avian Dickson, granddaughter of Curtis Dickson, had surgery on a vertebrae. The surgery went well and she is recovering at home.

Wilma Lyons, a lady who lives on Lakeview Drive, has requested our prayers for her family.

A Consistent Christian

Could I be called a Christian if everybody knew
My secret thoughts and feelings,
and everything I do?
Oh, can they see the likeness of Christ in me each day
And do they hear Him speaking in every word I say?
Could I be called a Christian
if other folk would know
That I am found in places where Jesus would not go?
Oh, do they hear His echo
in every song I sing?
In eating, drinking, playing...
is Christ in everything?
Could I be called a Christian
if judged by what I read?
By all my recreation,
and every thought and deed?
Could I be counted Christ-like in daily work and play?
Unselfish, kind, forgiving
each hour of every day?
I wonder, and I ponder, and often do I pray,
That I may be like Jesus in all I do and say.
