One thing is for sure, you live in a world with an ever-increasing population of people. The number of people today has more than doubled in the last 50 years. As of January 2024, the world population surpassed 8 billion. When you consider that 200 years ago the world population was less than a billion, it is alarming to say the least.

We certainly have those in society today who would prefer to retreat and get as far away from people as possible. But Christians know that, like our Savior, we need to be about our Father’s business (Luke 2:49). And like our Lord, we want to seek and to save the lost (Luke 19:10).

So many are preoccupied with disease, hunger, and other maladies, that there is no thought for the eternal nature of man. Sometimes even Christians tend to forget that this world is only a temporary abode.

It is essential that we remember that the majority of people are lost in their sins. We must reach them with the Gospel message before it is too late. An eternity apart from God is a terrible thing to contemplate.

Society pushes hard for man to mind his own business not realizing that their eternal souls are in peril. Yet Paul reminds us, “But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God and not of us” (2 Cor. 4:7). You and I have been entrusted with the saving message of the Gospel and we need to share it with as many people as possible.

The clock is ticking. And despite the growth we see in the world today, there are millions of souls each year who die unprepared to meet their God.

“Of one the Lord has made the race, Thro’ one has come the fall; Where sin has gone must go His grace: The Gospel is for all. The blessed Gospel is for all, the Gospel is for all. Where sin has gone must go His grace: The Gospel is for all.” (Song: The Gospel Is For All)

Remember In Prayer

Cathy Clegg has begun receiving injections in her knee. She will receive three injections. Cathy asks for your prayers that this will help with her knee pain.

Ruth Dickson recently had an evaluation with a doctor at Cleveland Clinic concerning her swallowing issues.

Richard Egnor has been recovering from Covid. He was recently diagnosed with pneumonia. He remains at home to recuperate.

Helen May has been hospitalized with an infection that has gone to her blood stream. Her doctors are trying to determine the best antibiotic to help. She is in Camden Clark Hospital in isolation. Cards may be sent to her address at Cedar Grove Assisted Living.

Caren Edwards, aunt of Melissa Grose, has been dealing with cancer and will begin radiation treatments soon.

Don Ogden, father of Rick Ogden and Tracy Eaton, has been hospitalized with congestive heart failure.

Wilda Clark, mother of Brent Clark, is in East Ohio Regional Hospital for long-term care. She would appreciate receiving encouragement cards. Her address is: 1 Fairview Terrace, Wheeling, WV 26003

*Our family and friends prayer list has gotten lengthy. If you would like your family member to stay on the list, please write their name on the back of your attendance card.

Announcements

Attendance Cards: Members, fill out a tan attendance card. Visitors, fill out a blue card. Please pass them to the aisles.

Sermons: Mark’s lesson titles for today are: AM - “There is Someone at the Door” PM - “The Heart of David”

Opportunity Cards: Group two will pick up their opportunity cards today. Send a card, make a visit, or a phone call.

Coats For Kids: Today is the deadline for donating new and gently used coats, hats, hoodies, scarfs and gloves for the Latrobe Street Mission. There is a barrel in the foyer for these items. Thank you to Adam Hoschar for heading up this project.

Teachers: We are asking teachers to check their classrooms to see if they are in need of new Bibles. If you do need Bibles, please let Eydie know.

God’s Church

Most people think a church is built
Of brick and wood and stone
And after Sunday services
Stands empty and alone.

But God’s own church is made of souls
Who spread both far and wide
The story of His wondrous love
And Jesus crucified.

A living church — a family royal;
With Christ the King to reign.
Which after stone and wood are gone,
Forever will remain.
