Weaknesses
by Mark Aites

“Admitting your faults isn’t a weakness – it’s a strength. Having your weaknesses pointed out isn’t a slur on your character – it’s an opportunity to improve your life.” – James Owen

Every single human being has weaknesses. Perhaps you have anger issues, or maybe struggle with impatience, or talk too much, or you are the type of person to take too many risks. The list of weaknesses can be amazing to see.

Quite often our greatest struggle is in what we cannot do. You might struggle with shyness that prevents you from public speaking. You might fight with yourself with the seeming inability to push yourself away from food. Or you might find yourself so intimidated that you fail in your endeavors before you give yourself a chance to succeed.

No one likes to admit they have weaknesses. We are concerned with how others might view us. But if you realize that every one of us has some type of weakness, then it becomes easier to address that which weakens you. “Have mercy on me, O LORD, for I am weak....” (Psa. 6:2). This sounds like a prayer that every one of us could utter.

When it comes to spiritual matters we must accept that we are weak. “Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong” (2 Cor. 12:10). The apostle Paul knew that the strength to overcome the human weaknesses is found in Christ. “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me” (Phil. 4:13).

Even though we have weaknesses, and imperfections, we rejoice knowing that our Lord provides the strength we need to live the Christian life. There is no shame in admitting that we need Jesus in our lives!

Remember In Prayer

Sympathy: Our sympathy is extended to the family of Treva Daggett. Treva was the sister of Buster Kupfner and DeDe Cook. Her funeral was held on Friday, August 15th.

In Memory
Treva Daggett
March 9, 1954 - August 9, 2025

Paula Aites is scheduled to have cataract surgery on Thursday, August 21st.

Jeanette Dyer has been in the hospital for close to two weeks. She may be able to be discharged soon.

Kate Hofmann had an out patient procedure on August 14th. All went well and Kate is recuperating at home.

Pat Rine, friend of Dave Cooper, had a pacemaker inserted last week.

School Supplies: The school supplies need to be here by today

- Antibacterial wipes

Announcements

Attendance Cards: Members, fill out a tan attendance card. Visitors, fill out a blue card. Please pass them to the aisles.

Sermons: Mark’s lesson titles for today are: AM - “Be An Andrew”, PM - “God’s Way Is Exclusive” Opportunity Cards: Group Three will pick up opportunity cards today.

Baby Shower: The baby shower for Hannah Drummond is this Saturday, August 23rd, at 2:00 pm in the MPR. If you would like to contribute to a group gift from the church, please see Cindy Meredith, Mandy Kupfner, or Megan Duncan.

Younger Youth: There will a devotional and cookout for our younger youth (5th grade and under) on Saturday, August 30th. Please meet at the home of Randy and Cindy Meredith at 6:00 pm. Hot dogs will be provided, please bring chips and drinks. There is a sign up sheet in the foyer if you plan to attend.

Bulletin: The bulletin will be printed on Thursday this week. Please have any announcements to Eydie by Wednesday night. The church office will be closed Friday, August 22nd.

College Students: Parents, we would like the addresses of our college students. You can write them on the back of your attendance card. If your child is attending school and staying home, please write that on your attendance card.

Thank You: On behalf of my family, I want to thank you for all you have done and continue to do following Jimmy’s passing. He loved this church and several became close friends. Your support is a comfort and your advice is welcome in the days ahead. The cards, flowers, expressions of love, and the dinner were all appreciated. God bless you all. Much love, Pam, Logan, Cody, and family
