CORRUPTION
by Mark Aites

“Corruption is like a ball of snow, once it’s set a rolling it must increase.” – Charles Caleb Colton

We tend to think of corruption when we talk of politicians, or even the election process.
Sometimes we use this term to describe our civil government. In reality, the concept is much broader.

The first time we encounter this concept is during the days of Noah. “The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth” (Gen.
6:11-12). It is interesting to observe in these two verses that God speaks of corruption three times. All three times it is derived from the primitive root word which means “to decay.”

Granted, sometimes in Scripture the word corruption is used to refer to the decay of the human body upon death. But there are also times that it is used to show the decay in society of those who would live a corrupt lifestyle. “For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life” (Gal. 6:8-9).

To achieve a life that avoids corruption, we must live a godly life. “Therefore put to death your members which are on the earth: fornication, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry...But now you yourselves are to put off all these:
anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy language out of your mouth” (Col. 3:5,8).

Peter writes of being “partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust” (2 Pet. 1:3-4). We must fight the temptation of the world so that we do not become “slaves of corruption” (2 Pet. 2:19). Paul also writes of it as being “slaves to sin” (Rom. 6:20).

If we can be enslaved by corruption, then it is something that we need to take seriously. It would be terrible to miss heaven because of it!
