Faith
by Mark Aites

“Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen” (Heb. 11:1). Did you notice the writer makes reference to “the evidence of things not seen?” It is not referring to a belief in something that has no basis in fact. Actually, the original word suggests the idea of proof!

Let’s be reasonable. What is more baseless to believe; that God created everything and we see the evidence, or that all that we see is the process of evolution and chance. Perhaps if the people who promote the foolishness of evolution would listen to themselves, they might have a change of heart.

True faith has it basis in fact, not conjecture. And God has not left us without that evidence. We have sixty-six books known as the Bible to provide us with our proof, along with the ability to see the wonders upon the earth and in the heavens. “So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God” (Rom. 10:17). “The heavens declare the glory of God; and the firmament shows His handiwork” (Psa. 19:1).

Isn’t it amazing how people will believe something that has been written that may only be based upon one or even two manuscripts? They are ready to accept it as fact! The Bible itself is the product of more than 25,000 manuscripts; 10,000 Latin Manuscripts, 5,800 Greek manuscripts, and 9,300 written in other languages! Any reasonable person would say that it shows that the Bible has a strong basis for being believed.

Man’s salvation is dependent upon faith in God. “Therefore I said to you that you will die in your sins; for if you do not believe that I am He, you will die in your sins” (John 8:24). “But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him” (Heb. 11:6).

Remember In Prayer

Karen Blair has been diagnosed with pneumonia. She is home recuperating.

Adam Hoschar began daily radiation treatments this past week. He is having swelling in his face which is worrisome for him. He asks for our prayers. You can send cards to him at: 6995 Hopes Way Unit B, Liberty Township, OH 45044. If you want to visit Adam it is best to call him ahead of time. He does not have treatments on the weekends, so those days would be better for visits.

Ken Long had emergency hernia surgery last Monday. He spent several days in ICU. He is now home recovering.

Damon Miller had mixed results from his last tests. He will need to undergo more testing.

Jim Ullom will have hernia repair surgery on Tuesday, November 18th.

Ike Boggs, friend of Jim Ullom, passed away November 13th. His funeral was held in Spencer, WV
