A Part Of Thanksgiving
by Mark Aites

In what might well be looked upon as a Thanksgiving style text, we note the following admonition: "Therefore you shall keep the commandments of the LORD your God, to walk in His ways and to fear Him. For the LORD your God is bringing you into...a land in which you will eat bread without scarcity, in which you will lack nothing..." (Deut. 8:6-10).
It certainly is a call for gratitude. But then in the same context is the warning, "Beware that you do not forget the LORD your God by not keeping His commandments, His judgments, and His statutes which I command you today" (Deut. 8:11).

In the midst of a call for gratitude, notice that part of the message is stressing the importance of not forgetting God and what He has done for us. If truly the things written aforetime were written for our learning (Rom. 15:4), then here is an admonition that needs to stick in our minds.

What is ironic is that Israel went on to forget God. As the Psalmist looks back at the events following the exodus from Egypt, he writes, “The waters covered their enemies;
There was not one of them left. Then they believed His words; they sang His praise. They soon forgot His works..." (Psa. 106:11-13). “They forgot God their Savior, who had done great things in Egypt” (Psa. 106:21). Such was the history of Israel. “When they had pasture, they were filled; They were filled and their heart was exalted; therefore they forgot Me” (Hos. 13:6).

It is hard to believe that after all that God had done for Israel, that their history would show a tendency to forget God. But perhaps that is not that strange when you look at America today. We live in a land that flows with unparalleled blessings. We have an over abundance of food. We have homes that are comfortable for our living. We have clothing so that no one goes cold. We have freedoms that many in this world long to possess. And yet the tendency in this great country is to forget God.

In the call for thanksgiving, let us never forget the source of all of our wonderful blessings. “Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is good! For His mercy endures forever” (Psa. 118:1).

Remember In Prayer

Bob Cameron suffered a concussion due to a fall. He will be un-dergoing testing in the next couple weeks.

Adam Hoschar continues his radiation treatments in Cincinnati. The treatments are going well.

Jim Ullom had hernia repair surgery last week. Jim is recuperat-ing at home.

Melanie Cutright, the principal at Lubeck Elementary, has been diagnosed with a brain tumor. Rita Cameron has requested pray-ers for her.

Joe Maze, husband of Krista Maze, fell off a roof last week. He has extensive injuries to his ribs, lungs, and pelvis. He is home re-covering.

Susan Poole Miller, a former member at North End, is having heart problems and has asked for our prayers.

Thank You: We want to thank you for your prayers, calls, and cards, following Ken’s surgery and hospital stay. We are so blessed to be a part of such a loving congregation. God bless you all. In Christian love, Ken and Michele Long

How To Observe Thanksgiving

- Count your blessings instead of your crosses.
- Count your gains instead of your losses.
- Count your joys instead of your woes.
- Count your friends instead of your foes.
- Count your smiles instead of your tears.
- Count your courage instead of your fears.
- Count your full years instead of your lean.
- Count your kind deeds instead of your mean.
- Count your health instead of your wealth.
- Count on God instead of yourself.

A thankful heart doubles our blessings, causing us to enjoy them twice – when we receive them and when we remember them.
