Loss
by Mark Aites

“But what things were gain to me, these I have counted loss for Christ” (Phil. 3:7). It was George Helbert who said it well, “Sometimes the best gain is to lose.”

When one considers what Paul gave up to follow the Lord, it is truly amazing. He himself had written, “If anyone else thinks he may have confidence in the flesh, I more so: circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law a Pharisee” (Phil. 3:4-5). He said, “I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Ga-maliel, taught according to the strictness of our father’s law, and was zealous to-ward God as you are all today” (Acts 22:3).

A Pharisee, taught by Gamaliel, of the tribe of Benjamin, which the Jews re-garded as the best, such a background would have been the envy of many Jews. Yet, Paul did not see it as a gain because it interfered with his efforts to follow Christ. Such was from the past, and it needed to be left there.

Sadly, today there are Christians who have baggage that they just can’t leave behind. They want to follow Christ, but they don’t want to let go of their past. Is there really anything that is worth jeopardizing our walk with Christ?

Since we are focused for the moment on Paul, let’s not forget his resolve to fol-low Christ. “I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me” (Gal. 2:20).

“Brethren, I do not count myself to have apprehended; but one thing I do, for-getting those things which are behind and reaching forward to those things which are ahead, I press toward the goal for the prize of the upward call of God in Christ Jesus” (Phil. 3:13-14).

Remember In Prayer

Ruth Dickson is undergoing testing to see what is causing her health issues. She appreciates all of your prayers and concern for her.

Adam Hoschar will begin radiation treatments soon. He will have an extended stay in Cincinnati during this time.

Kirk Malone is scheduled to have knee replacement surgery on November 3rd.

Damon Miller had a PET scan of his brain last Monday. They are looking for blood flow to the brain or additional plaque to the brain.

Dave Davis, friend of Doreen Kupfner and CJ and Natalie Vaughan, will have extensive back surgery on November 6th.

Raymond Smith, uncle of Jim Kerns, fell last Tuesday and has two brain bleeds. He is in the hospital. His family requests our prayers.

Sondra Mays, a lady who lives in our neighborhood, is in the hospital in Morgantown undergoing testing. She requests our prayers.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Rob and Kenda Williams (Kenda is the daughter of Ken Grose). Rob's father, Bob Williams, passed away.
His funeral was held in New Cumberland, WV. You can send a card to Rob and Kenda at: 15915 Turnberry Street, Lansing, MI 48906.
