Inactivity
by Mark Aites

“The only thing necessary for the triumph of evil is for good men to do nothing.” – Edmund Burke, letter to William Smith, Jan. 9, 1795

For far too long man has convinced himself that neutrality is the best decision. Biblically, there is no such thing as neutrality. “Whoever is on the LORD’s side – come to me!” (Exod.32:26). “I have set before you life and death, blessing and cursing; therefore choose life, that both you and your descendants may live” (Deut. 30:19). “...Choose for yourselves this day whom you will serve” (Josh. 24:15). “How long will you falter between two opinions?” (1 Kings 18:21). “No one can serve two masters...” (Matt. 6:24).

When man seeks neutrality, and chooses to do nothing, it sickens our Lord. In a scathing rebuke to the church in Laodicea, our Lord said, “I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I could wish you were cold or hot. So then, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth” (Rev. 3:15-17).

Failing to take a stand, failing to act, places one as a servant of Satan. “Therefore, to him who knows to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin” (James 4:17).

When one fails to act, to stand for righteousness, can we not say it is coward-ice? “He who overcomes shall inherit all things, and I will be his God and he shall be My son. But the cowardly, unbelieving, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars shall have their part in the lake which burns with fire and brimstone, which is the second death” (Rev. 21:7-8). Isn’t it interesting that the very first ones identified as not having the right to the holy city are the cowardly?

Inactivity remains a grave problem. How well we can cite the verses and blister others for failing to do what needs to be done. Perhaps we need to remember the saying, “Physician, heal yourself” (Luke 4:23).

Remember In Prayer

Paula Aites will have cataract surgery on Monday, November 10th.

Tyler Franklin is having dental problems that have led to an infection.

Adam Hoschar will begin radiation treatments soon. He will have an extended stay in Cincinnati during this time.

Bill Kirby has been dealing with back issues. He will be having surgery in the near future.

Kirk Malone had knee replacement surgery last week. The surgery went well and Kirk has begun physical therapy.

Ike Boggs, friend of Jim Ullom and a member at Spencer Church of Christ, has had a relapse with his cancer. He is not doing well.

Dave Davis, friend of Doreen Kupfner and CJ and Natalie Vaughan, had back surgery last week. The surgery was successful. Dave remains in the hospital.

Pat Vaughan came forward last Sunday asking for prayers. She states she needs to be more faithful. Remember Pat in your prayers.

Which Form

- God said: Let us form man in our image.
- The world says: We must conform man in our image.
- Satan says: I will deform man by sin.
- Education says: Let us inform man by knowledge.
- Society says: We will reform man by culture.
- But Jesus says: I will transform man by love.
