Friends And Family Day 2025

Welcome to our Friends And Family Day. We are so happy that you have chosen to worship with us today. You are our honored guests.

We do hope that you will stay and have lunch with us. A dinner is prepared in our Multi-Purpose Room.

The North End Church of Christ is well known for our love and genuine care for all who attend. Jesus has taught us to “love one another” (John 13:35). In fact, our Lord has declared that we are to be known by our love. And we want to do our best to share that love with you.

We are a Bible-based church that seeks to restore New Testament Christianity. Churches of Christ seek to get back to the Bible, a message that has been lost in many of the modern churches.

In our efforts to restore New Testament Christianity we seek to speak where the Bible speaks and be silent where the Bible is silent. We seek to call things by Bible names and do things in Bible ways. And if asked about our creed, we would say, “No creed but Christ, no book but the Bible.”

Our desire is to be the church of the New Testament, in its fullness and simplicity. If you are looking for a church that speaks the truth in love, you have found her. Again, welcome!

Remember In Prayer

Paula Aites is scheduled to have out patient surgery this Wednesday, October 15th.

Ruth Dickson took a bad fall at home on Wednesday. She was treated at the ER for an injury to her head.

Adam Hoschar underwent surgery to remove a tumor behind his eye on October 9th. The surgery was successful, a large portion of the tumor was able to be removed. Pathology reports will take several days and then it will be decided what course of treatment Adam may need.

Winona Steed suffered a heart attack on Thursday. She was admitted to Camden Clark Hospital in ACU room 180. She is undergoing testing to see what damage was done.
