Grudges

by Mark Aites

"I was angry with my friend; I told my wrath, my wrath did end. I was angry with my foe; I told it not, my wrath did grow." – William Blake

A grudge is defined, "A persistent feeling of ill will or resentment resulting from a past insult or injury." One would like to think that grudges don't find their way into the church, but the reality is, they do.

Bad feelings between Christians is certainly not unknown in sacred writing. Remember Paul's admonition, "I implore Euodia and I implore Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord" (Phil. 4:2). Paul's concern for these Christian ladies is quite evident in that he used the word implore (beseech) two times in the same verse.

Do people hold grudges in the church today? Consider how it is possible for two people to attend the same congregation and never interact with one another. Sister A can come in one door, and Sister B in another. They can interact with certain individuals and worship on a regular basis without ever having to encounter one another.

What is shameful is that a grudge can be held by someone for ten or twenty years, without seeking to come to a resolution. Jesus said, "Therefore if you bring your gift to the altar, and there remember that your brother has something against you, leave your gift there before the altar, and go your way. First be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift" (Matt. 5:23-25).

The sad part about holding a grudge is that it tends to consume the one who holds it. The bitterness and resentment only festers and leads to a negative outlook on almost everything. What is amazing is that a person with whom we hold a grudge for years may not even be aware of it. All of us know what a grudge can do to us. Yet, we still have to admonish Christians not to hold one!

Remember In Prayer

Diane Fouss will have a follow-up appointment with her surgeon on Monday, March 16th. Dianne appreciates all your prayers on her behalf.

Joan Petty has been suffering from back and hip pain. She recently had an injection, but it hasn't helped with the pain.

Adam Hoschar has requested prayers for his cousin, Joe Reeder, and his two friends, David Oldaker and Robbie Hancock, who are all dealing with cancer.

Ruth Dickson requests prayers for Carol Sullivan, who is dealing with health issues.

The Will Of God And You

The will of God will never take you,
 Where the grace of God cannot keep you,
 Where the arms of God cannot support you,
 Where the riches of God cannot supply you,
 Where the power of God cannot endow you.

The will of God will never take you,
 Where the Spirit of God cannot work through you,
 Where the wisdom of God cannot teach you,
 Where the army of God cannot protect you,
 Where the hands of God cannot mold you.

The will of God will never take you,
 Where the love of God cannot enfold you,
 Where the mercies of God cannot sustain you,
 Where the peace of God cannot calm you,
 Where the authority of God cannot rule you.

The will of God will never take you,
 Where the comfort of God cannot ease you,
 Where the Word of God cannot feed you,
 Where the providence of God cannot help you,
 Where the omnipresence of God cannot find you.
