The Day of Judgment by Mark Aites

"There are only two days on my calendar…today and the day of judgment." – Martin Luther

The Day of Judgment is virtually unknown even among religious people. The modern concept that is embraced is, "As long as I am morally good, I will go to Heaven."

As Paul stood on Mars Hill and saw the idolatry of the city of Athens, in his exhortation he said, "Truly, these times of ignorance God overlooked, but now commands all men everywhere to repent, because He has appointed a day on which He will judge the world in righteousness by the Man Whom He has ordained. He has given assurance of this to all by raising Him from the dead" (Acts 17:30-31). "For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ, that each one may receive the things done in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad. Knowing therefore, the terror of the Lord, we persuade men…." (2 Cor. 5:10-11).

Jesus too spoke of that day. "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only" (Matt. 24:36). "Therefore you also be ready, for the Son of Man is coming at an hour you do not expect" (Matt. 24:44).

The Hebrew writer states, "And it is appointed for men to die once, but after this the judgment" (Heb. 9:27). Clearly this is not just some idea or concept that someone dreamed up, but a true day and hour in which the Lord will return to judge the world.

We not only do ourselves a disservice when we pretend that there is no judgment, but we hurt our family, friends, neighbors, etc. when we don't warn them of the impending Day of Judgment.

When that Judgment occurs, we will have to give an account for how we have lived in this life (cf. Rom. 14:12). But be warned: "For God will bring every work into judgment, including every secret thing, whether good or evil (Eccl 12:14).

Krista Maze had out-patient surgery on the veins in her legs. The surgery went well.

Joan Petty has been moved to room 502 in Camden Clark Hospital. She is showing some improvement.

Tony Rittenhouse is in a step-down unit at Camden Clark Hospital. He was taken off the ventilator and now has a tracheostomy. He has other health issues but is doing a little better.

Brad Kimes, a former member at North End, is in ICU at Marietta Memorial Hospital. He had to be placed on a ventilator on Wednesday.

Allison Posey, a friend of Lindsey Hoschar, was at Duke University Hospital receiving treatments, but they found the cancer was spreading. She returned home then was admitted to the hospital for pain management. Her oncologist's plan is to begin chemotherapy and radiation. Her family requests our prayers.

Just Use Me

I am the Bible! I am God's wonderful Library!
I am always and above all, the truth!
To the weary pilgrim, I am a good strong staff.
To the one who sits in black gloom I am glorious Light!
To those who stoop beneath heavy burdens, I am sweet rest.
To him who has lost his way, I am a safe guide.
To those who have been hurt by sin, I am healing balm.
To the discouraged, I whisper a glad message of hope.
To those who are distressed by the storms of life, I am an anchor, safe and sure.
To those who suffer in lonely solitude, I am as a cool, soft hand resting on a fevered brow.
Oh, child of man, to best defend me, just use me!
