HUMILITY

John 3:30

Many times we like to get recognition as humans. We like a pat on the back and a word of recognition. As Christians it is good to give these when warranted. We should encourage one another more than we sometimes do. But we need to be careful not to do things just for those pats on the back. The Pharisees in Luke 14:7-11 wanted to be seen as great in the eyes of those around them. They would wait until late to go to a meal so that everyone in attendance would see them receive the best seat with the highest honor. Jesus corrected them when he said, "For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and he who humbles himself will be exalted."

If we cannot humble ourselves then God will humble us. If though we can accept the lower seat and enjoy the blessings of a loving God in humility then He will grant us glory when His judgment is passed. We must bow ourselves to Him. Love is essential to a successful Christian life. Unless we can find humility we cannot love as we are required. Take the attitude John the Immerser had in John 3:30, "He must increase and I must decrease."

Just as water seeks to fill the lowest place
So God fills you with His glory and power
When He finds you empty and abased

Thank You

To our brothers and sisters at North End, Thank you for you kind words of sympathy, the cards and your prayers, at the death of our dear grandson, Kurt Baker. We love you all, Don & Carol Bibbee

To our North End Family, Thank you for the cards and your prayers following the death of our niece, Amanda Vaughn. Your kindness meant so much to us. In Christian love, Gene & Lucille Kidder

Step By Step

He does not lead me year by year,
Nor even day by day;
But step by step my path unfolds,
My Lord directs my way.
Tomorrow's plans I do not know;
I only know this minute.
But He will say, "*This is the way,
By faith now walk ye in it.*"
And I am glad that it is so,
Today's enough to bear;
And when tomorrow comes, His grace
Shall far exceed its care.
What need to worry then, or fret?
The God who gave his Son
Holds all my moments in His hand
And gives them one by one.
