HOME IS WHERE THE HEART IS

Matthew 6:19-23

The old saying goes, “Home is where the heart is.” This means that home is not necessarily where you currently live but the place you desire most. Some move to their home from their birth place. Some move away from home only to realize what they left and move back. As Christians we have a home not made with hands. That home is a place in heaven with our names written on them.

Jesus addresses the idea that home is where the heart is in Matthew 6:19-23. He says that the heart is the place you deem most important. If you see the lure of the world and long for those earthly treasures then your heart is on earth. Here you may accumulate worldly treasure but these things will not last. When they pass away then your heart will be left empty again. If your heart is on heavenly things and God’s righteousness then you get an incorruptible treasure. It becomes a matter of focus; the clear eye can see clearly those things of life and godliness. The eye that is corrupted by the world can see only greed and selfish ambitions. These things determine your eternal destiny.

Place your heart above by looking for those right things. Seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, hunger and thirst for the word, not the world. Make heaven your home by thinking on those good things (Philippians 4:8-9) thereby renewing your mind to those things above (Romans 12:2). Treasure God’s word so heaven will be your home.

"Seven Reminders"

An exercise to use during the Lord's Supper

One Lord.

Two thieves.

Three crosses.

Four soldiers who gambled for Jesus' garments.

Five wounds: Four nails in Jesus' hands and feet, one spear in His side.

Six hours of agony from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m.

Seven tremendous sayings from the mouth of Jesus:

"Forgive them" (Luke 23:24).

"Today thou shalt be with me in paradise" (Luke 23:43).

"Into thy hands I commend my spirit" (Luke 23:46).

"Behold thy mother, behold thy son!" (John 19:26,27).

"I thirst" (John 19:23).

"It is finished" (John 19:30).

"My God, my God, why has thou forsaken me?" (Mat 27:46)
