If the devil were to write his beatitudes they might go something like this:

Blessed are those who are too tired, too busy, or too distracted to spend an hour or two once a week with their fellow Christians - they are my best workers.

Blessed are those Christians who wait to be asked and expect to be thanked - I can use them.

Blessed are the touchy. With a bit of luck, they may stop going to church - they are my missionaries.

Blessed are the troublemakers - they shall be called my children.

Blessed are the complainers - I am all ears with them.

Blessed are they who are bored with the preacher's mannerisms and mistakes - for they get nothing out of the lessons.

Blessed is the church member who expects to be invited to his own congregation - for he is part of the problem instead of the solution.

Blessed are they who gossip - for they shall cause strife and divisions that please me.

Blessed are they who are easily offended - for they soon will get angry and quit.

Blessed are they who do not give an offering to carry on God's work - for they are my helpers.

Blessed is he who professes to love God but hates his brother or sister - for he shall be with me forever.

THE HOLY BIBLE

Though the cover is worn,
And the pages are torn,
And though places bear traces of tears;
Yet more precious than gold
Is this Book worn and old,
That can shatter and scatter my fears.

This old Book is my guide.
Its a friend by my side.
It will lighten and brighten my way;
And each promise I find,
Soothes and gladdens the mind,
As I read it and heed it each day.

To this Book I will cling,
Of its worth I will sing,
Though great losses and crosses be mine;
For I cannot despair,
Though surrounded by care,
While possessing this blessing Divine.
