God's Promise

Maybe you've had your credit card declined, your help refused, or your feelings ignored. There's a chance you've had your advice shot down, your contributions unrecognized or your work unrewarded. But there's one thing you've never been, you've never been rejected by Jesus. In fact, before you were born, God wanted you. And now that you're here, He can't get enough of you.

Have you gotten a pink slip from your employer or been brushed off by a neighbor? Were you scorned by a teacher or compared to a brother?

You've endured much and will endure much more, but because of Christ, there's one thing you will never have to feel—God's rejection. (Isaiah 41:9-10). Christ is an unconditional includer. He promises to remain devoted to you no matter what anyone else says, does or thinks.

Can you do the same for HIM?

Remember In Prayer

Becky Petty had foot surgery last Monday. She is now home recuperating and will be in a cast for 6-8 weeks.

Sydney Maze will have surgery this Friday, March 5th to correct her cleft palate and have tubes inserted in her ears. She will be in the Women and Children's Hospital in Charleston and is expected to stay anywhere from 1 to 5 days.

Alice Buckley will have surgery on March 11th to amputate part of her leg. Alice is in Eagle Pointe Care Center.

Joan Petty will have knee replacement surgery on her left knee on March 2nd at St. Joseph's Hospital.

Owen Bucy, grandson of Penny Cross, had heart surgery this past Wednesday. The surgery was a success and Owen is doing well. He is in Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown.

Ryan Becker, a friend of Chris and Erica Cameron, has been diagnosed with a terminal illness and it is progressing rapidly. He is a member at Grand Central Church of Christ. Chris and Erica ask you to keep him in your prayers.

Kenadie Noelle Barclay, newborn daughter of Jacob & Amanda Barclay, was born last week. She has some health issues and is in Ruby Memorial Hospital in Morgantown. They hope to be able to take her home soon.

Dennis Bova, a friend of Jim and Dianna Kerns, has been diagnosed with pancreatic cancer. Jim and Dianna requests prayers on Dennis' behalf.

Sympathy: We extend our sympathy to Dave Martin at the death of his brother Jim Martin. Jim passed away this past Tuesday at his residence. Funeral arrangements are pending at Leavitt's.

But Once

I shall pass through this world but once. Any good therefore that I can do or any kindness that I can show to any human being, let me do it now. Let me not defer or neglect it, for I shall not pass this way again.

Keep your heart free from hate, your mind from worry. Live simply, expect little, give much, sing often, pray always. Fill your life with love. Scatter sunshine. Forget self, think of others. Do as you would be done by - these are the tried links in contentment's golden chain.

Thank You

We thank everyone for the love and concern. The cards, calls, and prayers meant a lot to us. It was so nice of the young men who brought the carnations. The visit and seeing them was so nice. We miss seeing everyone and being at worship. God bless you all and keep us in your prayers. Love George & Vera Hess

Thank you so much for the beautiful flowers they definitely brighten a hospital room! Also, thank you for the phone calls, cards and visits. I didn't think I wanted visitors while in the hospital but it was nice to see some familiar faces! Love, Kim Snyder

Thank you for all your cards, prayers and concern during my recent diagnosis of cancer. I have a long road ahead of me and will continue to need your prayers. It is wonderful to be a part of the North End family. In Christian love, Annabel DeLong

Someone asked, "Will the heathen who has never heard the Gospel be saved?" It is more of a question whether we-who have the gospel and fail to give it to those who have not, can be saved.
