WHAT DO FRIENDLY CHURCHES DO?

By: Dan Winkler

Expect Visitors: Hundreds of neighbors are invited each year to our services: to special days like Friends Day and Homecoming. Many of these are face-to-face invitations, others are by mail and others are through advertising on TV, radio or print. Many of our members invite others on a regular basis. Think how foolish it would be for us to come any Sunday without the thought that someone will be visiting. Let's expect them, because they will be here. We have many visitors each week. Do you expect them?

Come Early and Stay Late: If everyone arrived at two minutes 'til and left immediately following the "amen," there would be no one to visit with visitors. Plan to arrive a few minutes early to search out visitors.

Visitors First: Don't wait until you have visited with everyone else before you search for visitors. They will probably be gone. Give the first few minutes before and after class or worship to find and welcome visitors. It is part of the "Royal Law."

Offer Them Four Invitations: Invite them to your class or help them find a class. Invite them to sit with you during worship. Invite them to lunch with you. And invite them to the next service. Just because they are here doesn't mean the invitations stop!

This Means YOU: No one else can obey the royal law for you. We do not all have the same abilities or personalities. But all of us can offer a kind word and a welcome.
